

Subject key:

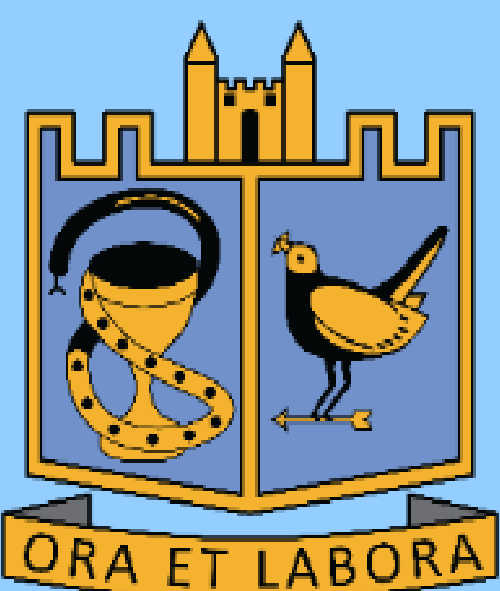

Skills:

- Cause and consequence
- Interpretations
- Significance
- Similarity and difference
- Evidence
- Change and continuity

Themes:

- ⚡ Power
- ✝ Beliefs
- 👤 Ordinary People

History Department Curriculum Road Map

A levels

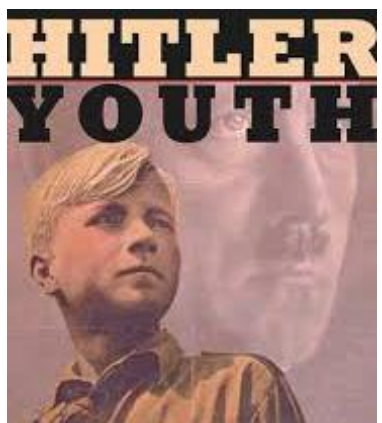

Apprenticeships Traineeships

Technical and vocational qualifications

Revision

Mock Exams

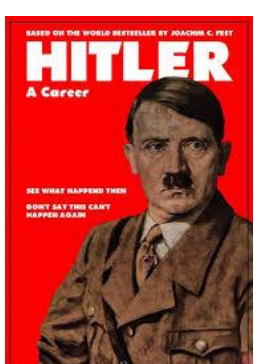

Life in Nazi Germany 1933 - 1939

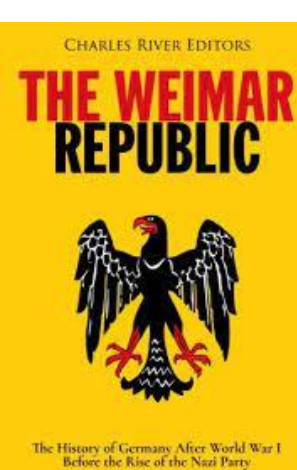

The creation of a dictatorship 1933 - 1934

Hitler's rise to power 1919 - 1933

The Weimar Republic 1918 - 1929

GCSE Paper 3 Germany

Development of the plains 1862 - 1876

Conflicts and conquest 1876 - 1895

Renaissance medicine 1500 - 1700

Modern medicine 1900 - present

Historic environment British sector of WW1

Medieval medicine 1250 - 1500

Industrial medicine 1700 - 1900

The early settlement of the west 1835 - 1862

GCSE Paper 2

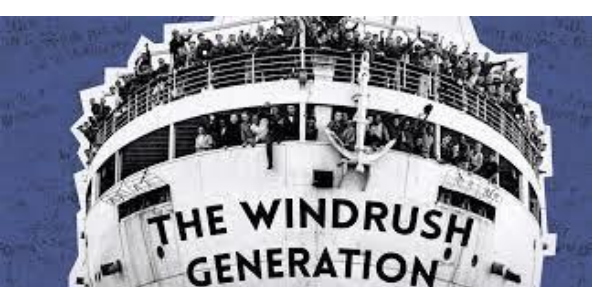

American West Paper 1 Medicine

YEAR 11

Norman England 1066 - 1088

William I in power: securing the Kingdom 1066 - 1087

Anglo Saxon England and the Norman conquest 1060 - 1066

How has immigration shaped Britain 1200 - modern day?

YEAR 10

GCSE Paper 2: Anglo Saxons and Normans

How was the 20th century shaped by extremism?

Is the 20th century a story of things getting better?

Whose history is it anyway? A study of minority history

GCSE Skills

YEAR 9

20th Century

What's so great about the Great war?

How important was religion in the middle ages?

Britain before 1066: Who are the English?

YEAR 8

1066 - 1900

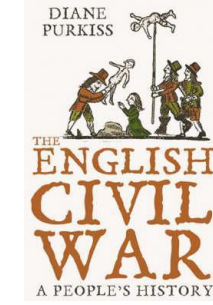

YEAR 7

Was 1500 - 1700 a time of revolution?

Ancient history before 1066

Why do historians disagree about the British Empire?

How far was 1700 - 1900 a time of progress and improvement?

Were the medieval peasants happy?

What's so important about 1066?

Life in Britain

Literacy

Enrichment Cultural Capital

Enrichment Catholic Ethos

Learning Sequenced

Learning Stand Alone

Curriculum intent:

At St Benedict's we believe students deserve a broad and ambitious history curriculum, rich in skills and knowledge, which immerses our students in a range of cultures and creates an enquiring and critical outlook on the world and modern society.